

Jeremy Stein

Executive Director

He/him

Jeremy started on May 1, 2024 as Executive Director of States United to Prevent Gun Violence.

He is a nationally recognized gun violence prevention expert, advocate and survivor. He served as the Executive Director of Ct Against Gun Violence (CAGV) for the last 6 years, where he helped lead the way for the passage of some of the strongest, life-saving gun laws in the nation. During his tenure, Connecticut achieved its first ever “A” rating for the strength of its gun laws.

Previously, Mr. Stein is a seasoned litigator with over 23 years of experience, graduating from Emory University School of Law. He also worked in the Attorney General’s Office of the District of Columbia; and was an assistant public defender with the Maryland Office of the Public Defender, in its Baltimore City felony trial division.
